File No. BPH-910705-MC

SECOND PETITION TO DISMISS APPLICATION

COMES NOW Rosemary Houston and moves the Commission to dismiss the application of PERLA ACOSTA OJEDA, and states:

1. Petitioner renews her original Petition to Dismiss Application filed herein.

2. In Section III - Financial Qualifications, page 6, Applicant Ojeda falsely represents that D. Kirk Edens, Executive Vice President, United New Mexico Bank, 505 397-3271, has committed to lend $60,000.00 to construct and operate the new FM station. The United New Mexico Bank has neither loaned nor committed to lend any money for this purpose. See the affidavit of Glen L. Houston attached as Exhibit A.

3. Applicant Ojeda represents that $100,000.00 will be necessary to construct and operate the requested facility for three months, and that $40,000.00 of this will come from applicant's own funds, and the remainder from United New Mexico Bank; therefore Applicant Ojeda has made a material misrepresentation, and the applicant should be dismissed.

WHEREFORE, petitioner requests that the Commission dismiss the above styled and numbered application.
